

Michael Lukin, Managing Director

Macquarie Funds Group

Michael Lukin is a Managing Director in Macquarie Funds Group Sydney office. Michael is responsible for the overall management of Macquarie Investment Management Private Markets global operations and is chair of the Investment Committee and Senior Partners Committee. Prior to his appointment as Global Head of MIMPM, Michael was responsible for all Australian private equity capital raising, fund investments and co-investments. He has been a member of MIMPM's Investment Committee since its inception and has been directly involved in the successful implementation of MIMPM's large public pension fund mandates and fund of funds, having participated in the approval of all MIMPM investments since joining Macquarie.

Michael has 15 years of private equity investment experience. Michael serves on the advisory boards of Next Capital, Crescent Capital, Pacific Equity Partners, Catalyst, Ironbridge and Gresham Private Equity, and is a current AVCAL Council member.