

AUSTRALIAN INVESTMENT COUNCIL EVENTS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – 2021

1. All presentations and circulations from Australian Investment Council (AIC) events are done for the purposes of information only, these do not constitute advice. Please seek your own advice in relation to your specific needs. Circulation copyright belongs to the author.
2. AIC reserves the right to alter this program and the line-up of speakers, review registrations or cancel this event at its sole discretion.
3. Registration for AIC events must be accompanied by a credit card (only) payment online via the shopping cart link at point of registration. A tax invoice will be provided via the online process.
4. AIC reserves the right to cancel at our sole discretion any applications/registrations and/or refuse entry into the event if payment is not successfully received via credit card at point of online registration.
5. Any other form of payment must be agreed to with AIC by contacting members@aic.co and payments must be received at least 7 working days prior to the event date.
6. Cancellations must be advised by email to members@aic.co and received by AIC before 5pm, at least 5 working days prior to the day of this event. AIC reserves the right to refuse a refund after this time.
7. Refunds will not be granted if a registrant fails to attend this event or does not adhere to point 6.
8. Substitutions may be made at any time.
9. Any such substitutions made as per point 8 above must be from within the same organisation unless otherwise agreed to by AIC in writing.
10. While AIC will make every reasonable effort to accommodate any dietary requirements arising from a substitution with less than 5 working days' notice, however, it may not always be possible due to individual venue requirements and policy.
11. Registrants may have their name and contact details included on the delegate list which may be distributed to other delegates and/or sponsors in relation to the specific event. If a delegate(s) does not wish to be listed in the delegate list, delegate must note this in their registration/application form's Special Needs field.
12. AIC adheres to Federal Privacy Laws; our policy can be found at <https://www.aic.co/AIC/Privacy-policy/AIC/Privacy-Policy---Disclaimer.aspx>
